

We are looking for a few positions of Registered Nurse and/or Assistant Medical officer for Klinik QFFD in Kajang, Selangor.

Klinik QFFD operated by Mercy Malaysia provides primary health care services such as outpatient treatment including management of NCD, MCH, vaccinations, counselling and health education programmes.

Requirements:

- Candidate must possess at least diploma in nursing with valid APC or possess at least diploma in assistant medical officer with valid APC and registered with LPP
- Adhere to professional ethics
- Good communication skills, must be conversant and able to understand, read and write in English
- Able to perform all Primary health care related procedures including vaccinations, blood taking, ECG, assist in antenatal care, administer medication, and usage of nebulizer machine.
- Able to work as a team as well as possess good leadership skills.
- Familiar with vulnerable populations and compassionate with their health care needs
- Familiar or having basic knowledge in computer and Microsoft office

If interested, kindly email your CV to qffdclinicadmin.kajang@mercy.org.my Short listed candidate will be called for interview.

Closing date: 04 April 2021